

Professional music on a younger note

Uttarpara Sangeet Chakra recently organised its 56th Annual Music Conference. The event was attended by 3,000 people, including dignitaries. The event saw Pandit Rahul Sharma participating in the show. Pandit Rahul Sharma is one of the youngest musicians to perform at the WOMAD (World of Music Arts and Dance) festival in UK, as well as the Edinburgh

Festival. He has also played along with his illustrious father Pandit Shivkumar Sharma at Egypt. He is the first young Indian classical musician to give music for a commercial Bollywood feature film all by himself and also the youngest music director for whom Lata Mangeshkar, the queen of Hindi film-dom, agreed to sing in his very first venture.
